The pro se plaintiff brings this action alleging that the defendants, who may be members of his extended family, have stolen his identity and have been falsifying statements.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation and opines that this action should be summarily dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on September 30, 2011. However, the plaintiff did not file any objections. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws, the record in this case, and the Report and Recommendation, this court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law. The Report is incorporated herein by reference.

Accordingly, this action is dismissed without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
